Reviews of the Mary Magdalene's Easter Story - Arch Books (Learning Bible Stories Is Fun with Arch Books) by Sara Hartman

Content is great (in that this book actually goes into the less than happy parts of the Easter story), but the story-telling is confusing for young children because of the use of flashbacks. Most annoyingly for me, the rhymed text is very poorly metered. I found myself trying to edit it into better rhythms while reading it aloud. If you're going to rhyme your text, give it some rhythm, too! Artwork is so-so.

Arch books are very good stories with great pictures. Written well so the young and older child will listen
