Jackie Ball knows that happiness is hard to find, so when Dan Lewis jogs into her life with his skin-tight shorts and sexy smile she grabs him while she can. One night he produces a diamond ring and suggests he trade in his BMW for a people carrier. But there's a fly in the ointment - her first husband, Henry. As far as Jackie's concerned, their marriage was like a bad dream, so she hires a solicitor and sets about moving on. But Henry has some old scores to settle and the divorce papers hitting the dog-haired mat are just the excuse he needs. It's not that he still loves her, but Jackie walked out on him without even leaving a note and now he wants to know why...
