A truly inspirational conclusion to the saga of Don Gaddo's cousin, Joseph Doglio, and the other members of the crew of the B-17 named "Angel", all but one of whom died when they were shot down over Germany on July 19, 1944. This is a story that will touch your heart and strengthen your faith, as Joseph takes that final walk we all must one day take and finally learns that the beliefs of his faith and the tenants by which he lived his life were true. Masterfully, Gaddo and Schabinger intersperse Joseph's frightening revelations as he enters this strange new world with flashbacks to his childhood, where he learned lessons that shaped his life forever. And to the tender moments he shared with his sweetheart, Anne Howard, in the months before his death.

When you read this touching finale of the "Angel" saga, you will laugh, cry...and find reassuring reasons to BELIEVE! Ernest Hemingway once wrote, "All stories end in death and there is not true storyteller that would keep that from you." Don Gaddo and Laura Schabinger are storytellers who know full well the truth of those words...but also believe that life and love can transcend this world and that all of life prepares us for what comes after. "Joseph: The Final Mission" is a confirmation that faith and true love live on forever.
